

God's Library, Gabriel's Stone, and Forgers' Bookshelves

On Dating, Faking, and Trafficking

- A Symposium -

University of Agder, 22 October 2018, room A7-006

- 10.15-11.30: New Evidence for the Date and Provenance of P.Ryl. 3.457 (P52)
Brent Nongbri, Honorary Research Fellow at Macquarie University, Sydney
- 11.30-11.45: Coffee and tea
- 11.45-12.30: Historical Contexts of Forgeries: The Philippine-American Case
Christa Wirth, University of Agder
- 12.30-13.30: Lunch
- 13.30-14.15: Not even close. The so-called 4Q226 6a Fragment
Matthew Monger, MF Norwegian School of Theology, Religion and Society
- 14.15-15.00: Ancient or Modern? An Analysis of Layout and Variant Readings in Unprovenanced Post-2002 'Dead Sea Scrolls' Fragments Ingrid Breilid Gimse, Master student, MF Norwegian School of Theology, Religion and Society
- 15.00-15.30: Coffee & tea, fruit, cake and what not
- 15.30-16.15: Hazon Gabriel: A Display of Negligence
Josephine Munch Rasmussen and Årstein Justnes, University of Agder
- Open lecture with Brent Nongbri
- 19.00-20.30: How Old are the Earliest Christian Manuscripts and How Do We Know?
Kristiansand teater (Kongens gate 2)